

Business Translation

Turkish Word's business translation services include translations of Invitations to Tenders and information on tenders, bidding announcements, official tender documents once they have been purchased from the Turkish Government, foreign investment and international trade legislation, and information on doing business in Turkey. We also translate your business letters and other correspondence, company presentations, brochures, legal documents into English and Turkish. If you need timely, accurate, and dependable business translations between English and Turkish, please contact us.