

Turkish Word

Turkish Word specializes in software localization and a wide range of translations - medical, business, legal, technical and patents.

We are also active in the monitoring of Turkish news and media; translation and localization of websites, user and service manuals, UIs, and company marketing materials.

In addition to Turkish translation services, we provide general commercial consultancy related to doing business with and in Turkey and information and business assistance related to various business sectors in Turkey.

We are dedicated to providing correct and premium-quality translations. To this end, we only use the services of highly experienced translators and editors. We are comfortable working with industry standard software packages and with a variety of file formats. Please feel free to browse our website and contact us for more information about our products and services.
